

JOHNNY CHESTER'S WEDDING BELLE!

THE girl around the corner" became the wife of pop singer Johnny Chester when he married Liz (real name, Lorraine) Isbister in Melbourne recently. They were neighbors in the Melbourne suburb of Preston for many of the seven years — the last five as "steadies" — they have known each other. Liz, 20, is a stenographer in a solicitor's office and will continue at her job while Johnny (she calls him "Ches") is busy with his new "Teen Scene" TV show. For her wedding, brunette Liz wore a redingotestyle white taffeta gown, with appliqued white lace guipure roses outlining the redingote which flowed into a train. Similar roses formed the diadem band in her high-dressed hair. Johnny and Liz will live in a West Preston flat.

JOHNNY and LIZ at the wedding reception with Chessmen. Pictured at left, Frank McMahon (partly obscured), Albert Stacpool (at keys), Michael Lynch. At right, Les Stacpool. Picture by Bruce Anderson.