

THE AUSTRALIAN WOMEN'S WEEKLY Presents July 31, 1963

Teenagers

WEEKLY

Supplement to The Australian Women's Weekly
Not to be sold separately

JOHNNY CHESTER

At 21, Johnny Chester is firmly established as one of Australia's popular singers. Three years ago he formed his own band, which now attracts 1000 teenagers to regular dances in Preston Town Hall, Melbourne. In 1961 he joined the instrumental group The Thunderbirds as their singer, and with them made several hit discs. This year he released an LP, "Wild and Warm", and a single, "Knick Knack Paddy Wack." Johnny makes regular interstate personal appearance tours and is a familiar performer on top teenage TV shows.

THE AUSTRALIAN WOMEN'S WEEKLY Presents

THE AUSTRALIAN WOMEN'S WEEKLY Presents

Teenagers'

WEEKLY

July 31, 1963

Supplement to The Australian Women's Weekly

Not to be sold separately

JOHNNY CHESTER

• At 21, Johnny Chester is firmly established as one of Australia's popular singers. Three years ago he formed his own band, which now attracts 1000 teenagers to regular dances in Preston Town Hall, Melbourne. In 1961 he joined the instrumental group The Thunderbirds as their singer, and with them made several hit discs. This year he released an LP, "Wild and Warm," and a single, "Knick Knack Paddy Wack." Johnny makes regular interstate personal appearance tours and is a familiar performer on top teenage TV shows.